PRE-JOURNALISM

Before stepping in front of the camera, I spent about a decade on the other side, working my way up to Associate Creative Director at an ad agency. I landed my own national client and went out on my own (after which I wrote my #1 Amazon Bestseller, Go Solo, and began my business writing.) I worked on campaigns for Fortune 500 clients, led a team of creatives, directed and tracked campaigns, wrote scripts, crafted proposals, developed strategy and coordinated with clients.
